The school district is the center of the community in Holley, NY. Strength in the district comes from the partnerships between home and school. These partnerships ensure that each and every student is successful and working toward their maximum potential. The district's goal is to provide rigorous and challenging curricula and instruction in a safe and orderly environment, enabling all students to learn and succeed.

Holley CSD teaches students on one central campus, with the Middle School/High School educating students in grades 7-12 and the Elementary School educating students in pre-K-grade 6.

The district is currently engaged in a capital improvement project which aims to increase district safety and security; expand instructional opportunities, including adding a STEAM classroom and upgrading performing arts areas; enhance district property features; and improve athletics facilities.
